'INDIAN IMAGES,' A PHOTO ESSAY,
ON DISPLAY AT UM BEGINNING SUNDAY

MISSOULA--

"Indian Images," a photographic essay which features examples of traditional North American Indian life and culture, will be on display in the University Center Art Gallery at the University of Montana Sunday (Nov. 25) through Dec. 4.

The exhibit, which is open to the public without charge under the sponsorship of the UC Art Gallery, is composed of about 150 photos.

Leroy F. Berven, coordinator of public relations for the gallery, said the exhibit, "on loan from the Smithsonian Institution, includes many photographs which correct popular stereotypes and distortions."

Selected from original contemporary photographs in the National Anthropological Archives, the exhibit includes portraits of individuals and groups, and traditional clothing, ceremonies and crafts such as weaving, basketry and pottery making.

The Smithsonian's Bureau of American Ethnology made a number of the photographs between 1847 and 1928.
